

 HOUSE ITEMS *****

Mr. Charles Capps of this place who has been suffering with consumption for some time, was able to rest on Dec. 15. He leaves a wife and child and many relatives and friends.

The Weigel Bros. had part of their mare threshold last week. They got over 300 bushels.

Some of the House young folks attended a box supper at Roosevelt on Saturday the 21st and all had a splendid good old time. Also had a fine place on the Roosevelt young folks.

Also had some splendid music and songs. After the boxes were all sold they gave a cake to the prettiest girl and a sack of lots of good things to eat to the ugliest man, which was decided in favor of Miss Knobell of Roosevelt and Mr. Ruth Hinchman of House. Mr. Hinchman seemed very fond of the honor bestowed upon him, but more thankful for the good stuff received.

Another one saw him Saturday night and Sunday.

The people of House are finding it a well put down, two miles east of town which they started on the west of this week on the prospect of arrears water, or no selling whatever. They may strike off. As all occupied in school there was good indication of selling for steady.

The sugar beet proposition is now dead out. They are figuring on proceeding this spring.
